DOG ADOPTION APPLICATION

Thank you for your interest in adopting a dog or puppy from Empty Cage Collective. The dogs available for adoption have been rescued from abandonment, abuse, neglect and other forms of cruelty. We want to ensure that the dog(s) you are adopting receive life-long care, as well as compassionate and respectful treatment. We want to ensure that the best possible home is found for the animals that have been entrusted into our care.

Things to Consider

The fact that you are looking at rescue dogs is a wonderful thing -- it is definitely the responsible, caring thing to do. But one should consider a few important things before filling out the adoption application:

- Do you have time for a dog?
Dogs need you to take care of them even when you are busy, tired, sick, and otherwise inconvenienced. Many of our dogs have ended up in a rescue home because their previous guardians did not take the time commitment seriously.
- Are you prepared to deal with special problems that dogs can bring?
Flea infestations, scratched-up furniture and doors, bathroom accidents from animals who are not yet housetrained, holes in the yard and gardens, and unexpected medical emergencies are unfortunate but common aspects of lives with dogs.
- Is it a good time for you to adopt a dog?
If you have small children less than six years old, or have any of these things occurring or might occur within the next six months, you may want to wait to adopt: marriage, divorce, move, death in the family, new job, lost job, etc. If you travel frequently or serve in the military, a dog might not be the best match. These are all common reasons why people bring in and surrender their dogs to shelters. Having a stable, settled lifestyle is best for dogs.
- Will you be responsible?
Dogs depend on their people for everything. You need to be able to provide the things they require every day of every year for the rest of their lives. This is a big responsibility.
- Are you prepared to keep and care for the pet for the rest of his or her life?
These dogs have already been given up once. It is our commitment to place them in safe, loving, forever-homes.

To be considered as an adopter, you must:

- Be 21 years of age or older.
- Have the knowledge and consent of your landlord (if applicable)
- Be able and willing to spend the time and money necessary to provide medical treatment and proper care of the dog.

Completion of this application does not guarantee adoption of an Empty Cages Collective dog.
